

It is an elaborated sweet wine thought especially as a dessert wine.

It is not as sweet as the other sweet wines, and it is specially elaborated for those people that don't have excessive liking to the sweet wines of dessert.

It is aged in oak casks during three years, and it is therefore, a wine seated candy, mature.

A very aromatic, pleasant and exquisite "mistela" that without doubts it will make the delight of your palate.

Coupage:

*60% black garnacha
40% old cariñena of
"coaster"*

Tasting Note:

Mahogany color with edges "yodadas".

Potent in nose, with clear aromas of grape "pasificada", "algarroba" touches and of long upbringing. Very soft in dense mouth without ending up bothering and with power and width of likes. Alcohol very well integrated. Long.
